Date and	Orders of the Tribunal
Remarks
9th November,	Heard the Learned Counsel for the parties. The 2017	applicant has filed response to the reply filed by the
L. V.	respondents nos. 5, 6 & 7, in respect of compliance of the order of the Tribunal dated 30.10.2017.
V	We have considered the compliance report
11.11	submitted by respondents no. 5, 6 & 7; the reply filed by the MPPCB and the response submitted by the 20	applicant, to the compliance report.
	In so far as premises of respondent No. 5 namely 15	Hotel Royal Palace –I is concerned, the applicant has no grievance. As regards the other two places namely Hotel Royal Palace-II and III of respondents nos. 6 & 7 respectively, the Learned Counsel for applicant has submitted that as a preventive measure for the use of these places for marriage, the respondents should be given appropriate direction to take steps for treatment of waste to be generated.

We have carefully considered the reply filed by the MPPCB in respect of the present position of Hotel Royal Palace- II & III and we are satisfied that the compliance made by respective respondents is satisfactory and no further steps need to be taken. In case these sites are used by the respondents in a manner which requires any compliance under law and the same is not done, then the petitioner would be free to raise the grievance accordingly.

The Cheque amounting to Rs. 5,00,000/- (Five Lakhs) which was given by the respondent as Performance Guarantee may be returned to them forthwith.

Consequently, the Original Application be consigned to record.
